

Let's talk about compliance: measures, methods and modalities

Tuesday 15 December 9.00 - 10.00

Room XXIV

Refreshments will be provided from 8.30 onwards

Chair: Ian Mcconville - Counsellor, Deputy Permanent Representative, Permanent Mission of Australia, Geneva

- Opening remarks

Mirko Himmel - Research Group for Biological Arms Control,
ZNF, Hamburg University

- *Technical means with relevance for compliance - the role of
Open Source Information. Part 1*

Gunnar Jeremias - Research Group for Biological Arms Control, ZNF, Hamburg University

- *Technical means with relevance for compliance - the role of
Open Source Information. Part 2*

Jean-Pascal Zanders - Independent Expert

- Biological and Toxin Weapons Convention: Who Complies with What?

James Revill - Harvard Sussex Program, SPRU, University of Sussex.

- BWC Compliance Options and financial costs