Thanks to funds provided by UNSCAR, throughout the first half of 2022, IANSA Network members in 12 countries that engaged with a broader range of civil society actors and national officials in order to explore and establish synergies in their national context between international and regional instruments on small arms regulation with the aim to develop national priorities for the next phase of PoA implementation.

This panel will provide an opportunity to discuss the outcomes, challenges and ways forward following this constructive engagement with government ministers, national officials, and national commissions/focal points on small arms, as well as the importance of including civil society actors in these discussions.

SPEAKERS:

- Welcoming remarks: Ivan Marques (IANSA)
- Exchange between national dialogues facilitators:
  - Bianca Pabotoy (the Philippines)
  - Ana Yanci Espinoza (Costa Rica)
  - Eugine Ngalim (Cameroon)
  - Facilitated by: Teresa Dybeck
- Comments:
  - Takashi Mashiko (United Nations Office for Disarmament Affairs)
  - Permanent Mission of the Philippines to the UN
  - Permanent Mission of Costa Rica to the UN
  - Permanent Mission of Cameroon to the UN (TBC)
- Closing remarks: Permanent Mission of Canada to the UN

EVENT DESCRIPTION:

Thanks to funds provided by UNSCAR, throughout the first half of 2022, IANSA Network members in 12 countries that engaged with a broader range of civil society actors and national officials in order to explore and establish synergies in their national context between international and regional instruments on small arms regulation with the aim to develop national priorities for the next phase of PoA implementation.

This panel will provide an opportunity to discuss the outcomes, challenges and ways forward following this constructive engagement with government ministers, national officials, and national commissions/focal points on small arms, as well as the importance of including civil society actors in these discussions.

SPEAKERS:

- Welcoming remarks: Ivan Marques (IANSA)
- Exchange between national dialogues facilitators:
  - Bianca Pabotoy (the Philippines)
  - Ana Yanci Espinoza (Costa Rica)
  - Eugine Ngalim (Cameroon)
  - Facilitated by: Teresa Dybeck
- Comments:
  - Takashi Mashiko (United Nations Office for Disarmament Affairs)
  - Permanent Mission of the Philippines to the UN
  - Permanent Mission of Costa Rica to the UN
  - Permanent Mission of Cameroon to the UN (TBC)
- Closing remarks: Permanent Mission of Canada to the UN

EVENT DESCRIPTION:

Thanks to funds provided by UNSCAR, throughout the first half of 2022, IANSA Network members in 12 countries that engaged with a broader range of civil society actors and national officials in order to explore and establish synergies in their national context between international and regional instruments on small arms regulation with the aim to develop national priorities for the next phase of PoA implementation.

This panel will provide an opportunity to discuss the outcomes, challenges and ways forward following this constructive engagement with government ministers, national officials, and national commissions/focal points on small arms, as well as the importance of including civil society actors in these discussions.

SPEAKERS:

- Welcoming remarks: Ivan Marques (IANSA)
- Exchange between national dialogues facilitators:
  - Bianca Pabotoy (the Philippines)
  - Ana Yanci Espinoza (Costa Rica)
  - Eugine Ngalim (Cameroon)
  - Facilitated by: Teresa Dybeck
- Comments:
  - Takashi Mashiko (United Nations Office for Disarmament Affairs)
  - Permanent Mission of the Philippines to the UN
  - Permanent Mission of Costa Rica to the UN
  - Permanent Mission of Cameroon to the UN (TBC)
- Closing remarks: Permanent Mission of Canada to the UN

EVENT DESCRIPTION:

Thanks to funds provided by UNSCAR, throughout the first half of 2022, IANSA Network members in 12 countries that engaged with a broader range of civil society actors and national officials in order to explore and establish synergies in their national context between international and regional instruments on small arms regulation with the aim to develop national priorities for the next phase of PoA implementation.

This panel will provide an opportunity to discuss the outcomes, challenges and ways forward following this constructive engagement with government ministers, national officials, and national commissions/focal points on small arms, as well as the importance of including civil society actors in these discussions.

SPEAKERS:

- Welcoming remarks: Ivan Marques (IANSA)
- Exchange between national dialogues facilitators:
  - Bianca Pabotoy (the Philippines)
  - Ana Yanci Espinoza (Costa Rica)
  - Eugine Ngalim (Cameroon)
  - Facilitated by: Teresa Dybeck
- Comments:
  - Takashi Mashiko (United Nations Office for Disarmament Affairs)
  - Permanent Mission of the Philippines to the UN
  - Permanent Mission of Costa Rica to the UN
  - Permanent Mission of Cameroon to the UN (TBC)
- Closing remarks: Permanent Mission of Canada to the UN